

Post Employment Health and Pension Liability:

The Town of Columbus does not provide health coverage to employees after service. The Town of Columbus participates in the North Carolina State retirement system and actuarial calculations are performed annually by the state. The Town of Columbus does not have a supplemental retirement system and therefore has no other liabilities for such.